UNIVERSITY SCHOOL OF LAW AND LEGAL STUDIES

Dwarka, Sector-16 C, New Delhi-110078

Introduction:

The objective of the integrated BA and BBA LLB (H) Programme is to upgrade legal education in the graduation courses for the students fresh out of school. The effort is to give them intensive and integrated approach in law learning. The attempt is to upgrade the standards of professional legal education along the lines laid down by the Bar Council of India. The main thrust of higher education is on multidisciplinary approach and the curriculum of the five-year integrated programme has always emphasized on the interdisciplinary model.

Legal education endeavours to combine value-laden professional education, with specialized knowledge. A study of law involves both dispute resolution and social justice. It is not possible to update or 'modernise' the syllabus without the component of social relevance and an interdisciplinary or multi-disciplinary awareness. Legal education in India has always been sensitive to the challenges and requirements of the Indian society and an element of social justice remains at the heart of legal curriculum. Herein, the interdisciplinary manner of law teaching exposes students to the study of science, social science, engineering, literature, behaviour sciences, technology, management, medicine, along with knowledge in different branches of legal knowledge and procedures. This integrated knowledge system has given a sound basis for creating good judges, jurists, academicians and advocates with varying specialization. Only a very high degree of quality education will produce competent legal professionals coming out from the Universities.

With these objectives in mind, the USLLS offers two integrated graduate programmes: Law and social science and law and management, based on the current requirements in the field of law. An important component of the legal curriculum at the USLLS is a convergence of knowledge and practice. At every level of learning, practical applications of law are also integrated in the curriculum for students to have hands on experience of law - be it drafting petitions and memorials, skills of advocacy, working in courts as researchers, corporate law internships, working on online petitions, etc. Different practical skills are imparted at the different stages of learning from the first to the final year. The USLLS has a distinctive edge in this regard. It has to be remembered by the students that legal education is not merely understanding legal skills. Law has to be applied in real life social setups. Law in books provides the necessary theoretical knowledge and law in practice is the practical knowledge, and both have to navigate the challenges of the Indian social structures which have their complexities and intricacies. The University legal curriculum has an additional requirement of developing human resources for the Law Schools/Colleges and carry on higher studies and research in legal courses.

The Law Curriculum has been framed keeping in mind all such requirements, encouraging students in the field of law and legal research.

Programme outcome

The relationship between law and social science is very old. Law is considered to be social science, with its primary focus on professional learning in the past. There has been a shift from this focus on only learning to enter into the legal profession. The integrated programme of BA LLB (H) helps the students to (i) grow personally and professionally, (ii) think critically and innovatively, and (ii) apply theoretical knowledge of law and art into practice and in diverse areas requiring legal acumen. Social science brings the social reality and social experiences in the law classrooms, sensitizing students to the terms like equality, discrimination, marginalization, resistance, etc. It familiarizes students with India's legal institutions and sociopolitical systems of the past and India's colonial experience and freedom struggle to the social protests in the present times. Students' horizon are broadened into the areas of history, literature, political science, international relations, sociology, economics, gender issues, etc. Social Science subjects, integrated with law, play an important role in imparting ethical values and in shaping the conscience of the students. The integrated BALLB (H) intends to integrate, regional, national and international trends and orientations in the learning process so that our students are competent law professionals in any environment – be global professionals. On successful completion of the programme, the students can find niche in addition to judicial, consultancy, legal, administrative and para legal professions.

The interdisciplinary programme instills in the students in-depth and expertise knowledge on multiple social science disciplines in consonance with diverse traditional and modern laws - Intellectual Property Rights, Emerging Technologies, Constitutional Law, different Criminal and civil Procedural Laws, Contract Laws, Labour Laws, Property Laws, Jurisprudence,

Interpretation of Statutes, Banking and Insurance Laws, Competition Laws, ADR techniques, client management and counselling, etc. Social Science disciplines lays down the basic foundations of the law courses of national and international relevance. This interdisciplinary approach, with internationally relevant courses on IPR, information technology, cyber laws, International trade, commercial laws, competition laws, tax laws, etc. offers global job opportunities and makes the students competent and confident to think globally and respond innovatively to contemporary and fast-changing trends in legal profession and industry. Inclusive training on human rights, justice, rule of law, fundamental duties etc. will sensitise them towards social issues and make them explore socially relevant solutions by applying and interpreting laws to enhance community welfare and also to prepare themselves to avail avenues opened by globalisation. The programme will thus provide an excellent training to evaluate, assess, synthesise and choose between competing alternatives in life and profession; develop research, writing and oratory skills; infuse professional responsibility, perseverance and commitments in their real life and competitive profession and a spirit of pro bono service.

ProgrammeOutcome:

The integrated programme of BBA LLB (H) helps the students to choose their domain of expertise in either of the realms and to enhance potential career and business options in both the disciplines - Management and Law. Since in one life one cannot have knowledge in such diverse fields, that is why, law as a profession is always a collective or group profession. So, legal education has to be coupled with knowledge in human resource management, organization strategies and psychology. Students can also find avenues of growth in managerial, administrative and executive positions.

The successful completion of the programme, enables the students to fetch career opportunities either as a lawyer, prosecutor, judge, legal advisor, or in administration, planning, management, banking, insurance, health care management labour and industrial sectors. The study of Management helps to (i) improve critical self-reflection and interpersonal skills, (ii) sharpen managerial, entrepreneurial and leadership competency, (iii) learn the art of managing themselves and the clients, which are equally important to become a successful legal professional, (iv) Management and Law Programme is important in an extremely competitive area and challenging area of Corporate Law which requires strong communication skills and sharp interpersonal skills, and (v) provide insights into organizational behavior, working in a team and building a team.

The study of law helps them to acquire legal acumen and jurisprudential understanding in myriad branches of law both civil and criminal including Constitution, property & investment laws, banking laws, commercial and trade laws, IPR, ADR, technology laws, Corporate Laws, Competition Law, Telecommunication and Health Laws etc. which complement the managerial and entrepreneurial capabilities. The interdisciplinary programme, thus truly aims to inculcate ethics, moral values and social responsibility amongst the students by developing analytical outlook, critical and lateral thinking, logical reasoning, public speaking, intellectual autonomy, proficient writing and drafting, decisive problem solving and creative decision-making adroitness.
